YUANFONG CAMPSITE REGULATIONS

Various teams have applied for Yuanfong Cabin/Camp yet are unable to reach it, thus have requested emergency shelter at Paiyun Lodge. Whether on purpose or not, it has caused much disturbance and difficulty in all involved. Due to various concerns including management, verification, and safety, those who stay at the Yuanfong Campsite must abide to the following regulations:

1. It is required to inform the specific itinerary plan when applying.
2. All members of the team that haven't reached Paiyun Lodge by 12:00~14:00 MUST retreat back down the mountain.
3. If emergency shelter is required under extreme circumstances, then it would be a violation of the "Prohibition of altering in schedules" regulation. For the safety of all members of the team, the Park Entry Permit will be considered void, and previously planned activities will be suspended. All members of the team will descent the mountain the following day; ascent to the Main Peak is strictly prohibited.

All members of the team must travel and act as a unit. If any of the regulations stated above are violated, the park entry permit will become invalid according to Article 123rd of Administrative Procedure Act that "where the authority rendering the disposition has made a reservation of the power to revoke the administrative disposition" and the 5th regulation of Park Entry Application Regulations. Once the park entry permit is invalid, all member should not continue climbing regardless the former approval. Those who violate this regulation will get a ticket due to the violation of Article 19th of National Park Regulations.

We sincerely ask for the cooperation of all applicants to maintain our environment and safety of all involved.
